FORSTMANN CONFERENCES IN ASPEN: HISTORICAL VISITORS SINCE FOUNDING IN 1989

By: Joel van der Reijden | Linked article: Sun Valley Meetings | Date: March 25, 2018

The following list contains 121 names and biographies of Forstmann Little Conference visitors, primarily collected from a 1999 attendee list and a handful of early 2000s Denver News, Aspen Times, and Aspen Daily News articles. Other elite institutes/conferences in Aspen include the Aspen Institute, the Aspen Summit, the Sun Valley Meetings and the Fortune magazine conference.

In contrast to the Sun Valley Meetings, the Forstmann Conferences feature relatively few mass media, Hollywood and Silicon Valley titans. Instead, we find lots of elite poltical reporters (ironically employed by the media titans), Eastern Establishment elites of the Rockefeller clique, politicians, and a number of third world leaders. There also are a couple of interesting movie directors and/or actors to be found.
